Lafayette Parish Regular Board Meeting August 18, 2004

Board Recognizes Engineering Academy Graduates

The Lafayette Parish School Board heard from Worley Firmin, representative from University Medical Center, regarding community service by NHS Engineering students. Deanie Spikes, Northside High Engineering department, and her students drafted computer designs and a model for a biopsy tray. Begnaud's Manufacturing produced the product. Four students accompanied Mr. Firmin to the manufacturing facility to see it being produced. The biopsy tray will be used by the hospital. Students attending the board meeting were Casey Faul, Stacy Leger, and Ryan Sarkies; Jasmine Miller, Albert Dietz, and Chase Bernard were unable to attend. All of these students were 2004 seniors at Northside High.
