

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Membership in professional organizations is not compulsory; however, teachers, principals, and staff members are encouraged to affiliate themselves with some of the more important professional organizations.

Orientation of newly employed teachers will include information on professional organizations.

The School Board office will, if requested, deduct dues to professional organizations from paychecks.

Issued and approved prior to 1975