A handout explaining a learning activity on African Masks, showed the curriculum connection between the teachers and practicing artists.

C. OTHER REPORTS

a. *i*LEAP

Harriett Taylor, Director of Student Services, provided the Board with *i*LEAP 2006 summary results for Lafayette Parish which was given for the first time this year in grades 3, 5, 6, 7, and 9. From 1998 through 2005, students were assessed using The Iowa Tests, which are norm-referenced tests (NRTs). The No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), enacted in 2002, requires that state assessments be aligned to state content standards and that student results be expressed in terms of the state's performance standards. Since The Iowa Tests alone do not fulfill this NCLB requirement, the Integrated Louisiana Educational Assessment Program (*i*LEAP) was developed.

That the Board adopt Resolution 09-06-1530 – Louisiana Accessibility Awareness Week.

RESOLUTION 09-06-1530

WHEREAS, federal and state mandates require all students to have access to and make academic progress in the general curriculum; and,

WHEREAS, significant attention and resources have been allocated in Louisiana to address accessibility issues through the creation of various statewide initiatives, including but not limited to the Universal Design for Learning and Assistive Technology, which are designed to support educators in addressing students with a variety of learning styles, differences, and abilities; and,

WHEREAS, advances in curriculum resources and Internet tools that promise greater opportunities to students can become barriers to learning if the resources and tools are not accessible to all learners; and,

WHEREAS, universal access to the curriculum requires the involvement of all stakeholders, including policymakers, educational leaders, teachers, parents, curriculum publishers, etc; and,

WHEREAS, all students can be active learners in Louisiana’s curriculum without any barriers; and,

WHEREAS, the citizens of Louisiana join with the administrators of all school systems and teachers to encourage the state of Louisiana to increase the awareness of and funding for accessibility for all learners, which include curriculum resources, Internet tools, and governing policies; now,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Lafayette Parish School Board proclaim the week of September 11-15, 2006, as
